The thoughtful few do their shopping
in the early morning.

Eight below zero last Tuesday morning. This is "going some".

We will serve a dinner Court Day in January.

Almost every water pipe in the city was "frozen up" last Tuesday morning.

All the banks in the city will be closed on Christmas and New Year's day.

Hog killing has been the chief industry around Lancaster for the past week.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society will serve Court Day dinner at the Court House Monday Dec. 28th.

The unthoughtful many do their shopping late in the afternoon when the stores are crowded and the clerks are tired.

following marriage licenses in the past week; Walter White, 22 to Miss Maude Lowman, aged 17 and Steve Marsh-banks, 23, to Miss Vina Lawson age 22.

Don't forget the "Master Key" that

HURRAH FOR "JACK".

tained the following interesting item.
"Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dunn are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter, Laura Elizabeth, at the Good Samaritan Hospital, December 9.
Mrs. Dunn was before her marriage
Miss Irene Saunders, of Nicholasville."

APPOINTMENTS COUNTY BOARD.
The appointment last week of T. R.
Slavin, W. A. Doty, W. L. Lawson, Nathan Bogie and G. A. Bowling, by Judge C. A. Arnold, as the County Board of Supervisors are all good men and men that are posted as to the valuation of the farms of the county.
They will assume their duties the first week in January.

MEETING CHANGED.
The Christian Endeavor of the New Antioch church have changed their meetings to Sunday afternoons at 2:30.
Every member is urged to be present this Sunday and the next, as this years work will be closed and an interesting program is being arranged for both meetings.
Virginia Bourne.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.
Judge Hardin has appointed Mr.
Saulfey Hughes as trustee of the Jury Fund and the appointment is a popular one, as Mr. Hughes is thoroughly competent, having served in this capacity for a number of years under the late Judges Saultey and Bell. Mr. Hughes is the junior member of the well known firm of Hudson and Hughes.

SUPERVISORS AT WORK.
The city council at its last meeting appointed a board of supervisors and they have been putting in their time this week. The board consists of Mr.
Tom Wherritt, Mr. George Smith Sr.
and Mr. W. T. West. The selection of this board could not be improved upon and that they will do their duty thoroughly and to the satisfaction of the city and the tax payers goes without saying.

"DIS AM YOUR PLACE"
The place cards bearing the above words certainly looked good to those hungry deacons and elders at Raymond Haselden's Friday evening.
Each one did justice to his place too.
We have often heard of the Methodist fondness for chicken, but we have seen another denomination's fondness for both chicken and turkey, to say nothing of the old ham. Seeing is believing and henceforth we will say nothing about anybody's appetite.

SEEDS READY.

We have the seeds from our mammoth pumpkins and "kershaws" now ready for distribution among our subscribers.
Call at our office any time and they will be handed out as long as they last.
Quite a number from a distance have already written for some which will be sent in a few days. Don't be bashful about asking for them, they have been assorted into neat little envelopes and we want our friends to have them.

MOVES TO BUCKEYE.

Dr. W. E. McWilliams, who moved from Walnut Grove to Lancaster a few months ago, has located at Buckeye and will assume the practice of his profession at that point immediately.
While only with us a short time Dr.
McWilliams made many friends here who regret to have him leave. We heartily recommend the doctor to the good people of Buckeye and wish him much success in his new field.

HOWE.

Uncle Peter Howe, aged 84 years and a veteran of the Civil War, died at the Confederate Home, at Pewee Valley, last Monday after a lingering illness of senility. He entered the Confederate army in June 1861 as an enlisted man in Company G, of the Eleventh Tennessee infantry, and served for four years. He was a native of Ireland, but had lived a greater part of his life in this county, Lowell being his old home. He went to the Confederate Home in May 1906. He is survived by one son, Mr. W. L. Howe, of Richmond Ky, and by one daughter, Mrs. Ida Napier, of Lowell Ky. After appropriate services at the grave the body was laid to rest in the Richmond cemetery last Tuesday afternoon.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNED Finally Last Saturday.

Circuit Court which has been in session for the past three weeks, adjourned last Saturday. The grand returned 31 indictments, mostly for misdemeanors. Judge Hardin appointed James Burnside, T. T. Burdett and R. H.
Batson as jury commissioners who will select the jurors to serve during the year 1915.

PRESS DAY NEXT WEDNESDAY.

In order to give our advertisers the full benefit of their Christmas advertising and that our office force may enjoy their Christmas eve, we will issue our next weeks edition on Wednesday.
This will also put the Record over the entire county on Thursday, otherwise it would not reach our subscribers until Saturday, Friday being a holiday.
We wish all our correspondents to have their letters in this office by Monday and hope they will not disappoint us.

JUDGE GRANT E. LILLY Has Case Affirmed in Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment of the Madison circuit court in the case of the Richmond Lumber Co. against Butler. It will be remembered that this case was tried at the October term, 1913. On account of the absence of Judge J. M. Benton, Mr. Grant E. Lilly was agreed on by the parties to act as Special Judge.

The case arose out of the attachment of an automobile by the Lumber Company, alleging that it belonged to Gah-ren, Dodge and Maltby. Mrs. Butler claimed the machine and filed suit against the company for a wrongful attachment. The case was fought with unusual energy by both sides, but Mrs.
Butler won and the jury awarded her a judgment for $340 damages. The company appealed and lost again.
Judge Lilly was sustained in his rulings in every particular.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The Bible School of the Christian Church will celebrate Christmas with the use of "White Gifts for the King".
A program appropriate to this occasion
will be presented Wednesday evening December 23 by the children of the Bible School. The donations will be varied, at the door will be barrels for apples and potatoes, while inside of the church will be receptacles for other gifts such as clothing, toys, candies and etc.

Wise and loving economy of the King's treasures will be realized by having the "Gifts of Substance" made as large as possible in order that the command "in as much as ye do it unto the least of these, My brethren, ye do it unto me". The donation will be used for local charity. Let all members come or send a donation.

LOST.

Saturday night, small box containing a diamond ring. A liberal reward will be paid for its return to this office.

account, I need money to meet my obligations.

BEAZLEY BROS. ESTABLISH A QUARANTINE OF THEIR OWN.

A representative of the Record when in Lexington last week talked to one of the Beazley brothers who own that handsome farm McGrathians, and was told that they had decided not to take any chances with the hoof and mouth disease and that every gate and pass way on their farm had been locked.
So if any friends of Messrs "Dick and Pony" contemplate spending Christmas with them, the Record advises them to go in an air ship. We were also told that they had the best bunch of cattle this year they had ever fed, 180 in number weighing 1400 lbs.

HUBER-BALLARD.

The wedding of Mr. Bryan Ballard, of Lexington and Miss Marion Huber, of Chicago, was solemnized last Saturday afternoon in Lexington at the residence of Rev. I. J. Spencer, pastor of the Christian church, that gentleman officiating. Mr. W. T. Woolfolk, uncle of the groom and William H. Huber, brother and guardian of the bride, were the only attendants. Bryan Ballard is well known in this county where he was raised, being the youngest son of Mrs. Eliza Ballard, of Bryantsville.
His friends from his home county congratulate him upon his matrimonial venture and extend best wishes to his young bride.

BROKEN JAW REPAIRED ON "HIS HOGSHIP".

Mr. B. B. Myers, the popular representative for the Woolfolk Grocery Co, while traveling through the country in his automobile, accidentally ran over a hog belonging to Mr. S. R.
Foley, who lives near Hackley.

Thinking the hog was fatally injured,
Mr. Myers very graciously offered to reimburse the owner, who declined to accept anything, altho it was seen that the lower jaw of his hogship was so badly broken, that it hung in a perpendicular position. Not to be deterred by such a seemingly fatal injury, Mr.
Foley announced that the jaw could be set and the animal restored to its natural physique. With a disposition to be gentle the hog was easily caught and the injured jaw was set in position and bound firmly, by cotton bandages to the upper jaw. How was the hog to eat was the next question, but undaunted in his efforts to save that hog, he was soon taught to take his nourishment thru a straw, which was done for three weeks, then the bandages were removed and his "hogship" was himself again. If you don't believe us ask Mr.
Foley.

JUDGE CHARLES A. HARDIN. (Anderson News)

It is to be regretted that the failure to select "A," "B" or "C" Master Commissioner of the Lincoln Circuit Court should cause Judge Charles A.
Hardin, of Mercer, in an indirect way, to have opposition for re-election as circuit judge in the 13th judicial district, because he appointed "D" to the position. Boys, your man can't turn the trick. It will be just like "taking candy from a child" for Hardin to defeat him. And he ought to do so.
Why? Because he has made that district one of the best circuit judges it ever had, and he is entitled to an endorsement of his services as such at the hands of a generous and patriotic people. Knowing him as we do, and valuing his good friendship for us, we cannot refrain from saying a word in his favor. The Editor fifteen years ago stood in front of the old court house building in Harrodsburg and heard this splendid and gallant Democrat, Charley Hardin, appeal to his kindred, friends and neighbors to stand by the dauntless and fearless leader, William Goebel, for Governor, after he had received the Democratic nomination from his kinsman, Parker Watkins Hardin, when the state was in chaos
over the famous "Music Hall" convention nomination. We shall never forget that splendid plea made by him in behalf of Goebel. It endeared his Democracy to us. Charley Hardin is by nature and training a fit man for judge; possessed of an even temperament, an excellent interpreter of the spirit and letter of the law; rich and poor, white and black, high and low, are weighed in the Scales of Justice, and they balance with a Square Deal to all mankind. From an out-sider's viewpoint, we can only say to the people of that splendid district, honor again with your suffrage the man who took up the work left undone when God's tender finger called that brave, courageous, able eloquent, splendid jurist, the late Judge Micah Chrisman Saulfey, to sit as a member of the Court Above, from which there is no appeal for those below.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

ENDED BY HYOMEL.

An Inexpensive Easily Used and Most Effective Remedy.

Surely try Hyomel, nature's harmless remedy for catarrh, colds, asthma, bronchitis, or croup of children—a treatment that is pleasant to use, and so certain of results that R. E. McRoberts sells it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan.

Hyomel is not a cure all but a specific for distressing catarrh and similar ailments. You breathe Hyomel so that its antiseptic medication at once reaches the irritated and diseased tissues, healing and soothing the sore spots.

Get a Hyomel outfit, which contains inhaler and bottle of liquid, at once. Put twenty drops of Hyomel into the inhaler and breathe it a few times during the day. See adv in another column of this paper.

WAR HAD NO EFFECT ON IMPORTED TOYS.

The importation of toys arrived on time, notwithstanding many predictions to the contrary and declarations of war, blockades and interruptions to ocean traffic had no effect on the toy market. German manufacturers simply shipped their goods to Rotterdam, whence they were transported to America—however, the latter country would not have suffered if the German toys had not been received this year, as American toy makers are fast putting the importers out of business. American toys are 15 per cent cheaper and decidedly better than importations, except in the doll line, shopkeepers in this country affirm. And it is believed that by next year, the best dolls in the world may be made in America. Manufacturers are going to bring over some of the German doll makers, and have them train workers in this country.

Ugger toys seem to be popular among the children of the day, and rotary printing presses, auto races and such articles are much in vogue. The toy line is complete in Lancaster, where in the stores all the interesting and eminently engaging animals may be met, and where there are puzzles, books, games, toy houses, and hundreds of things to interest the children. So come in and bring your children and both of you will be repaid as the Lancaster merchants have a larger supply than ever before.

"The poor we have with us always." With the rapidly approaching holiday season, let us remember this, not with a passing thought, but substantially.

It is well enough to help the Belgians, surely this afflicted nation needs all possible assistance, but always "charity begins at home", and while we are making merry ourselves and giving of our sustenance to those who are less fortunate, let us see that those who are at our very doors are not allowed to suffer and that their Christmas is made at least comfortable.

The recent call of the Record for the assistance of our people in the relief of the Belgians is meeting with liberal response in the hearts of our people, and scarcely a day passes but that the columns of the Courier Journal chronicles the name of some Lancaster or Garrard county donor to this fund.

This is not a passing charity, but one that must be kept up until peace comes to this troubled nation, else there will be untold suffering. Pen cannot describe conditions there, and but for the charitable kindness of the big hearted people of this country, the suffering would have been many times greater. The stream of contributions continue to pour in an undiminished stream, and ship after ship laden with provisions and clothing for their relief is dispatched upon their journey of mercy. Let not this human duty to a stricken nation fall upon a charitable few. Let us all take a hand in doing the work of the Master. Sunday schools, churches, fraternal organizations, schools, individuals all should have a part in this most laudable undertaking, that of feeding the hungry, clothing the naked and relieving the sick and distressed.

Many little boys and girls in Lancaster are going to deprive themselves of the annual pleasure of giving Xmas presents to their dear ones, and are going to contribute their funds which they have so fondly hoarded and cherished for this purpose, to the Belgians. Surely He will remember and reward such acts, and they will feel the blessed assurance that "it is more blessed to give than to receive". However the matter of succoring this stricken nation is not a passing duty, but one that must be continued until better times dawn upon them. Christmas comes but once a year, and there is always someone near home whose life may be brightened by some little contribution from our abundant store. Therefore in our laudable effort to assist these for off self appointed charges, let us not neglect the suffering which may probably be found at our very doors. Let us see to it that during the festive season there is none within our knowledge, our means permitting, who goes without a small amount of those things which makes Christmas. Perhaps but for our beneficence some little stocking might be found empty on Christmas morning; but for our charity some little tot might go hungry on Christmas day. Before we expend our surplus in the assistance of those so far away, let us know that there is no suffering near our own homes which our bounty might relieve.

Christmas began with music when heaven's choir sang it in Bethlehem two thousand years ago. Earth caught the glad refrain, and has been chanting Christmas carols ever since.

Christmas-tide comes in with "Merry Christmas" greetings and goes out with "Happy New Year" benedictions. Surely if Christmas means so much Christ means more and we should be guarded against making more of Christmas than of Christ, more of the gift than the giver. This being true, care should be taken to observe Christ's birthday in an appropriate way.

If on your birthday, gifts were given to all your friends and no gift to yourself, would it gladden your heart? If not, then why should our Lord's heart be gladdened under such treatment?

Previous to twenty five years ago most Bible schools had what might be called a "Getting Christmas". The Christmas tree was hung with presents, some from teacher to class and the reverse, others from people to pastor and from friend to friend. Little thought was given to the poor that were with us always and still less was that of giving to Christ as a birthday offering. But the new service, "White Gifts for the King" is changing this old order of things by providing three all-important gifts, first-SELF, second, SERVICE, and third, SUBSTANCE. Let each of us do what we can to change the "Getting Christmas" into a "Giving Christmas" for then, and then only, can Christ look upon Christmas as His birthday. Above all things let us remember that it is "not what we give but what we share, for the gift without the giver is bare."

Pumpkin and kershaw seed from prize winning specimens can be gotten at this office by any subscriber for the asking.

MUSICAL.

Miss Webb and her pupils will give a musicale at the Auditorium next Tuesday evening. On Wednesday morning a miscellaneous programme will be rendered by the different grades in the Auditorium. The public is cordially invited to attend.

DELIGHTFUL DINNER.

Mr. J. R. Haselden was the host last Friday evening for a most elaborate six o'clock dinner in honor of the pastor, deacons and elders of Christian church. The beautiful apartments were embellished by artistic decorations of green and with the brilliant lights made it a most pleasing scene. Covers were laid for 18, with dainty place cards bearing an appropriate verse and a picture of a colored waiter attached, all being the ingenious work of the host himself. The genuine hospitality extended made the occasion one long to be remembered by each guest.

NOEL.

After an illness of several months Mr. W. T. Noel died at his home in Buckeye, Tuesday evening, at six o'clock.

He was familiarly known as "Billy Noel" and will be missed by a host of friends in town and his home scene. He was born and reared near where he died, being the son of Squire R. A. Noel and Patsy Burton.

When quite young he married Miss Lora Ray, who together with eight children survive him.

Mr. Noel was forty six years old the seventh of last July. From his early youth he was a member of the Baptist church. After short services at the grave he was buried in the Lancaster cemetery today, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. W. Beagle. The Record joins the friends of the family in extending sympathy to the bereaved widow and children.

SMALL CROWD AT PUBLIC SALE OF LATE STEVE E. OWSELY.

Owing to the day being one of the worst of the winter, the thermometer hovering around zero, the crowd was small at the Owseley sale. A dinner was served the crowd and did much for the enjoyment of the inner man.

The farm of 220 acres was taken down at ninety dollars and thirty cents an acre and was rented for the year 1915 to Boone Sanders and Mike Rogers for one thousand and thirty four dollars. Corn sold for $3.00 in the crib. Horses brought from 50 to 100 dollars. Milk cows from 30 to 55 dollars, and hogs 5 1/2 to 6.50.

WE NEED IT AS NEVER BEFORE.

Never did the world need Christmas, with all its strength and power and beauty and its gentleness and its charity, as it needs it today. The Christmas chimes will ring from the cathedral at Rheims, as well as from St. Paul's. That is the beauty of Christmas; it cannot be destroyed; its cult cannot be overthrown. It is an ever-present memory and a never-dying hope. The first Christmas carol was "Peace on earth; good will to men."

Keep bright these fires of hope and faith. Light all the candles upon the Christmas tree. For a moment let the children, at least, forget the darkness that covers half of Europe, and let them know that not war itself can postpone the coming of the Christmas morn, with all of its surprises and its joys, affection and its delight. For every Christmas is a well-spring of strength and beauty and glory, hastening the time when the lighted candles in each separate home shall make bright the remotest corners of the earth.

THE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE.

Like all of his public utterances, President Wilson's address to Congress was full of sober serious thought. He calls attention to the empty markets of the world that are open to us, but we cannot supply them because we lack ships. He says that we have "stunted and hindered the development of our merchant marine and now we need ships and have not got them".

Attention is particularly directed to two subjects; economy in government expenditures, and the subject of national defense. He is opposed to a larger standing army, but development of the national guard of the states is encouraged. He adds that anything beyond this would mean that we had lost our self-possession by a war with which we had nothing to do.

PAY YOUR TAXES.

At the last meeting of the city council Mr. Herron was instructed to have a complete list of all paid and unpaid taxes by the next meeting night, which will be the first Monday night in January, that the entire list may be read before the council and those not having paid by that time will be advertised besides paying the usual penalty. A good many are still in arrears with their water rent, which must be paid or the water will be shut off. Mr. Herron has been very lenient with the tax payers, in fact too much so, until now that "patience has ceased to be a virtue", you must pay your taxes and water rent, or suffer the humility of having your home advertised. The city is in dire need of this money and should be paid at once to avoid the extreme measure that the council will take at its next meeting.

CHRISTMAS HOMECOMING.

One of the great features of Christmas is the home meeting. How many hundreds of thousands who have been separated throughout the year will now be gathered together once more under the old home roof.

It is well that it should be so. It warms the heart to read of the trains to the north and the trains to the south, east and west being filled with people going home for their Christmas holidays. Gladstone once said: "I am told that the strain of our commercial life has loosened even the bonds that unite the family; that in the struggle for existence the parents forget the child and the child forgets the parents". God forbid that this should be so. If the parents did not think of the children they would not have them home, and if the boys and girls did not think of their parents they would not go home. Blood is a great deal thicker than water, and nothing will alter it. If possible spend your Christmas at home.

MONSTER TAPE WORM SEEN ALIVE BY ASTONISHED MULTITUDE.

When the Great Andes came to his platform a few nights ago he carried a glass dish, and it was soon realized that he had in it something out of the ordinary. A large crowd soon surrounded him, all eager to see what was in the dish. When told it was a tape worm and still alive, some threw up their hands in horror and backed away, while others drew near to get a glimpse of the monster. All were anxious to know who it came from and how long it was. When Mr. Andes was ready for his health talk he picked up the dish, and put a lead pencil under the worm. It was still alive, and would squirm back and forward like a snake. The 3,000 people present were astonished at seeing such a monster, and especially alive. It came from the system of Robert Boltmire, of East Broad. He has been a sufferer from stomach trouble and indigestion for four or five years, and in that time had used many medicines, endeavoring to get cured. Andes' Great Prescription has removed every ache and pain, and he has used only one bottle. Standing beside the platform before the enormous crowd, Robert Boltmire said: "My stomach would bloat after meals, what I ate would not digest, and my food would lay on my stomach like a lump of lead; would have shortness of breath, heart would beat fast. Sometimes my appetite was good; at other times would eat very little—my bowels were badly constipated; I was weak and gradually running down every day. Very often would have dizzy spells and sharp pains about my heart. Hardly a day passed but what had headache; but to-night after suffering for years all my pains and bad feelings have disappeared, and owe it all to Andes' Great Prescription." The tape worm that came from this man is 47 feet long.

Andes' Great Prescription cures catarrh of any form, indigestion, stomach, liver, kidney or bladder disorders, purifies the blood, builds up run down systems, and will remove worms from grown folks or children. Price, $1.00 per bottle, 3 for $2.50, six for $5.00.

Andes' Great Oil, the modern wonder, cures head noises, hard of hearing, stiff or drawn joints, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, sprains or strains, and will relieve any pain in three minutes. Price, 50c per bottle, 3 for $1.25.

All these great medicines are now sold in Lancaster by the McRoberts Drug Store.

This picture tells a story--our story.

The patron is being assured that the mechanic will do a thoroughly reliable job.

Now think. Suppose our man didn't do it. Suppose, in addition, we put the spurs to the customer on the charges.

Where would we come out eventually?

The patron would be sore. He'd go elsewhere and knock us. We back up our promises with honest service. We make good.

CROSSING THE BAR.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness or farewell
When I embark;

For, though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

—Alfred Tennyson.

"MY AUTO, 'TIS OF THEE"

My auto, 'tis of the thee, short cut to poverty, of thee I chant. I blew a pile of "dough" on you two years ago, and now you quite refuse to go, or won't or can't. Through town and countryside you were my pride and joy—a happy day. I loved thy gaudy hue, thy nice white tires so new, but now you're down and out for true, in every way. To thee, old rattle box, came many bumps and knocks, for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn, frayed are thy seats and worn; the whooping cough affects thy born, I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze, while good folks choke and wheeze as we pass by. I paid for thee a price 'twice buy a mansion twice—now everybody's yelling "ice"—I wonder why. The motor has the grip, the spark plug has the pip, and woe is thine. I, too, have suffered chill, ague and kindred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills since thou wert mine. Gone is my bank roll now. No more 'twould choke a cow, as once before. Yet if I had the "mon," so help me John—amen, I'd buy myself a car again, and speed some more—Ex.

YALE'S BOWL COMPARED

IN CAPACITY WITH OTHER MONSTER EDIFICES.

The Yale bowl undoubtedly seats more spectators than any other athletic plant in the world. Yale's bowl has a present seating capacity of about 70,000. The greatest attendance ever in the Harvard stadium was 43,000. Princeton's new stadium has a seating capacity of 41,000. The old wooden stands on Yale field accommodate 33,089. The stadium at Syracuse University is said to have room for 20,000, and Cornell's new concrete plant, when ready, will provide seats for nearly 15,800. The grand stands of brick and stone of the University of Pennsylvania allow 28,000 to see a football game. The Chicago University stands provide for 16,000, and it is said that the Seattle (Wash.) High School has a stadium built for 20,000. The University of Michigan stands, according to one source, were meant for upward of 50,000 and the new stadium at Vancouver promises to equal Harvard's well-known structure in seating capacity.

All these mammoth football stands tend to make baseball look like a minor sport, as far as field accommodations go. The greatest crowd that ever paid admission to a baseball game in this country was 33,281, and the occasion was one of the world's series games between the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Athletics on the Polo Grounds, New York City, Oct. 14, 1911. The Roman Coliseum furnished accommodations for 87,000 people, and with its marble seats it surely did have something on the new bowl at New Haven. St. Peter's church, Rome the New York Cathedral and other great edifices were not built for great crowds and are to be measured by their grandeur, not their seating capacity. However, it is interesting to note that on special functions at Rome attendances of from 40,000 to 50,000, at St. Peter's have not been considered "record breakers."

GOOD SALES OF TOBACCO*AT NEW SILAS SHELBURNE, LEXINGTON.

Our sales for the last few days have been very satisfactory and the planters have gone home very well pleased with the prices. While the prices are not as high as we think the crop should sell for, we think it is as good as it will be for sometimes to come, and we would advise those who are ready and wish to sell some soon, to do so now before the heavy receipts, which must come as soon as the crop is further advanced in the stripping. At present the buyers want stock to keep their big plant running and they are likely to pay as much or more now than they will when they get crowded.

There has been a number of big redriers and storage houses built here this year and in order to induce the people to bring their tobacco to Lexington and not have to wait so long for sales, the market will put on three sets of buyers after Christmas.

You will find it best to sell your tobacco with those who have had experience in running sales and are interested in building up the Lexington market, and not with those who have hired men to run their sales, as parties interested in keeping up their business will get you more money for your tobacco. We have two of the best lighted houses in the State to show your tobacco and an auctioneer who knows his business and the value of tobacco and never leaves a pile as long as he can get a bid. Our Mr. Bosworth and myself will see that you get full market price for all you bring or send us.

We do our drumming on the warehouse floor. Don't let parties interested in other houses tell you where to sell your tobacco, but come and talk with us in person.

Our sales will continue until December 23, when the market closes for Christmas.
